Great home, great location!

Recently renovated, this 1958 home exudes character while also giving a fresh, modern feel and is perfect for those wanting a comfortable home close to the main street.

Three large bedrooms have easy access to the main bathroom while the large styled windows let in excellent lighting. Original built-in storage in the wide hallway for extra convenience. Ducted cooling as well as a new split system air conditioner ensure the home is temperature controlled throughout the seasons.

A large family room at the rear of the property is an ideal room for family get togethers or activities with the main lounge perfect for watching TV. Significant work has been completed including fresh painting, new flooring as well as electrical and plumbing work.

Out the back you can enjoy good open space with a rear verandah that looks over lovely gardens and lawned area.

On an accessible flat block of approximately 817m² with double garage & wide driveway for ease of access.

Paved and easy-care front yard compliments the style of this lovely home that will suit many. With only a short walk to all that the bustling Nuriootpa has to offer, this affordable home presents a fantastic opportunity.

Currently tenanted until May 2025.
