

34 Ingham Dr, Casula, NSW, 2170

House For Sale

Thursday, 31 October 2024

34 Ingham Dr, Casula, NSW, 2170

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 4

Type: House

Catherina Khouzami
0298225761

Exceptional Double-Brick (R3 Zoned)

Discover a beautifully built property situated on a massive 625sqm (R3 Zoned) that offers endless possibilities! This double-level home features stunning high ceilings and a classic design that exudes timeless elegance.

The spacious layout includes a master bedroom with an en suite, ensuring your comfort and privacy. With built-in wardrobes in every room, you'll enjoy plenty of storage space throughout. The home is built on a solid concrete slab is a double-brick construction with a suspended slab promising durability and quality.

Step outside to a perfect backyard for entertaining family and friends. The drive through double lock-up garage and carport accommodates two cars, with ample additional parking available.

But that's not all! The ground level accommodates multigenerational living with an oversized bedroom and bathroom that has internal and external access. Enjoy the benefits of being right across from the highly popular Casula Mall, with the option to operate a business from home.

With close proximity to public transport, schools, shops, and reserves, convenience is at your doorstep. This much-loved home has been a blessing to its family for over two decades, and it's now ready to offer the same to its next proprietor.

Don't miss out on this rare chance to blend residential comfort with multi-generational living and business potential!

* Disclaimer: Ray White Liverpool believe that all information contained herein be true and correct to the best of our ability and in no way misleading, however all interested parties are advised to carry out their own enquiries and relevant searches independently.