Never before offered to the market, this luxuriously large home situated in tree-lined and tightly held Turner St boasts incredible proportions across its two levels and exceptional 691m² allotment. The prized location offers a leisurely walk or quick drive to St Aidan's Girls' School, St Joseph's Catholic School, Corinda High School and Primary School, and a short stroll to much loved local favourites such as the Dunlop Park Swimming Pool and soccer fields, and the vibrant Nelson St cafe and restaurant precinct. The home was built and has been held by the one family, and was thoughtfully and lovingly designed with large family living in mind. Showpieces of the property include its multitude of living and entertaining areas; from the opulently large formal living and dining room, to the supremely large family room, the lower level 5th bedroom or media room, storage room and study, the home is abundant in space and its next lucky owners will be spoiled for choice in options for indoor and outdoor living. The upper level features a huge master suite with walk-in wardrobe and ensuite bathroom, 3 additional bedrooms and a separate dedicated study. The wrap-around grounds provide a charming and picturesque front yard, a peaceful and fully private back yard, and a large fully-covered patio ideal for large-scale entertaining and year-round alfresco living. This property has never been offered to the market and represents an amazing opportunity to secure expansive indoor and outdoor proportions in an incredible locale. Be sure to inspect. Additional features include;- 5 Bedrooms plus a dedicated study, and a separate storage room.- Double lock-up garage with additional storage space - Lower level dedicated laundry room- Lower level powder room Property Code: 685
