Surplus to our owners needs and, on the market, to be sold, this is one exciting opportunity that should be on your immediate inspection list. Located in a quiet loop street where renovation and beautification are abundant. With an easy stroll to Tweed City shopping centre, local primary and high schools and public transport, this is the ideal renovator to suit either investors or live in owners. Featuring an L shaped lounge and dining area and a generous sized family / meals area which opens out onto the covered entertaining area and private fully fenced back yard. Accommodation is provided by four bedrooms with the main bedroom including ensuite and generous walk-in robe. Completing this great offering is an inground swimming pool and double enclosed car accommodation with rear access, a 20-panel solar electricity system and a fully fenced yard with front electric gate along with double gates to the rear with access from Kirkwood Road. Plenty of options for Caravans, boats & trailers etc. There is only one and it will be sold so inspect now and make an offer today!
