COASTAL HOMESTEAD

Occupying a commanding position over a meticulously maintained 1012m² block, this property has been influenced by the iconic architecture of a beloved homestead. The prized island lifestyle is harnessed from the expansive front deck, taking full advantage of the soft sea breezes and mesmerising sunsets. Is it time for you to relax and unwind on island time?

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU INSPECT:

- Beautifully maintained and presented 1012m² block with double, lock up garage and water tank.
- Three well-proportioned bedrooms, two with built in robes.
- Open plan living with separate media/tv room.
- Well equipped kitchen central to the living area.
- Newly renovated bathroom with second separate toilet.
- Internal laundry
- Fabulous, polished timber floors.
- Expansive deck large enough for dining and lounging.

This home is located in a highly sought after and tightly held waterfront street. Glimpses of the bay are seen across a Council easement that will never be built on. Sandpiper Beach and Thompson's Point are just a short walk from the front door.

Macleay Island lies just 18 minutes from Redland Bay via passenger ferry and a further 45 minutes to Brisbane CBD or the airport. Our village offers all of the amenities you would expect including Post Office, medical facilities, ambulance and police officers, clubs and café's, hairdressers and retail stores.
