Charmingly placed behind a picket fence, this sweet cottage boasts established gardens and updated interiors that highlight its appeal. Featuring three inviting bedrooms and a single bathroom, this home presents an ideal opportunity for first-time buyers, renovators, or astute investors. The quiet street location offers peaceful moments, with the backyard presenting a picturesque view of Cornish Hill. Original hardwood floors in the kitchen and dining, plus an ambient wood-burning fireplace create a cosy atmosphere within the central carpeted lounge. A spacious kitchen merges period features with a Smeg traditional wall oven for easy entertaining. The central bathroom features a beautiful claw foot bath. A single carport with additional off-street parking and useful sheds at the back cater to all storage needs, whilst a lush rear yard, adorned with vegetable gardens and mature trees, forms a green thumb's paradise. Enjoy the convenience of being close to all the amenities you need while still savouring the tranquillity of a country setting on approximately 774 sqm, just minutes from Daylesford's vibrant heart. Only 90 minutes from Melbourne with desirable proximity to celebrated restaurants, cafes, galleries, springs, and gourmet destinations.
