No Stone unturned.

Upon entering the generously sized home you are greeted by an overwhelming sense of quality and craftsmanship. From top to bottom, this home has seen a full renovation and refurbishment.

Move from the beautifully crafted passage, over the Tasmanian Oak floors through to the lounge, one can appreciate the natural light that bathes the home, creating an inviting atmosphere for both relaxation and entertaining guests. The kitchen, which is well-appointed with high end appliances including gas on glass cook top, brushed brass tapware, solid oak benchtops and timeless features, this serves as the heart of this home, where families can gather to cook and share meals.

Each of the three bedrooms offers a tranquil retreat, all three spacious, with the master bedroom particularly impressive with its size and potential for personalization. The centrally located bathroom has also been updated to reflect contemporary standards of comfort and style. Boasting brushed brass tapware, impressive exposed plumbing features and suite of custom cabinetry.

The expansive 1010m² allotment presents a rare opportunity in Port Lincoln, providing abundant space for children to play and for gardening enthusiasts to cultivate their own slice of paradise, adding to the already established fruit trees. The property also includes a secure carport adjoined to a refurbished garage, with painted floors and fully functional pit, ensuring working on you pride and joy is a breeze!

Situated within a stone's throw of local amenities and some of the region's best schools, 36 Stevenson Street is not just a residence but a hub for the discerning buyer. With its fusion of historical allure and modern-day functionality, this home oozes character and is poised to become the cherished backdrop to a family's precious moments or a wise addition to an investor's portfolio.
