Charming Timber Cottage: Your Gateway to National Park Serenity

Introducing this stunning chalet-inspired timber cottage nestled in the sought after suburb of Bowen Mountain. This picturesque home is situated on a spacious 1,132 square metre block, adjoining Blue Mountains National Park and is the obvious choice for anyone looking to make a "tree-change".

Inside, you will discover a delightful blend of country character and modern convenience. This unique home showcases beautiful timber-lined cathedral ceilings and a striking timber & tile floor in the open plan living room, where there is also a slow combustion fireplace with sandstone hearth. The kitchen boasts striking cabinetry, gas cooktop with electric oven, dishwasher and a breakfast bar. The layout seamlessly connects indoor and outdoor spaces, providing the perfect setting for both entertainment and relaxation as there is a front veranda, a back deck and a separate gazebo/barbecue area - each enjoying a different picturesque outlook.

Three of the bedrooms, each with generous built-in wardrobes, occupy the ground floor of the home and have easy access to the main bathroom whilst the light and airy loft, with the same stunning ceilings as the living area, is the location of the main (or forth) bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe and an ensuite which enjoys the luxury of a spa bath.
