Move straight in and start enjoying all the creature comforts that are on offer with this wonderful maisonette home located opposite a peaceful reserve in the heart of Elizabeth East. Situated walking distance to Elizabeth East Junior Primary School, local supermarkets, Playford City Tennis Centre, public transport routes and main arterial roads. Sitting on a spacious Torrens Titled allotment measuring some 674m², this offers some just completed refreshments including carpets and paintwork, presenting the ideal opportunity for a comfortable home. Offering a neat facade with ample off street parking, step inside to find a well proportioned living room with adjacent meals area and a refurbished kitchen that includes laminated cabinetry, upright electric cooker and an abundance of cupboards. The homes accommodation consists of three bedrooms, the master with built in robe and are well serviced by a neat and functional bathroom, with separate water-closet. Step outside to find a spacious rear yard with sound fencing and direct access to the updated single carport with automatic roller door. Other features include a reverse cycle split system air-conditioner in family room, rain water tank and security screens to all windows and front and rear doors.
