

38 Brentwood Crescent, Frankston, VIC, 3199

House For Sale

Sunday, 18 August 2024

38 Brentwood Crescent, Frankston, VIC, 3199

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Rob Lewis
0450209007

Unleash Your Imagination

Exciting renovation opportunity in Vibrant Frankston

Attention all first home buyers, developers, renovators, and astute investors!

Here's your chance to make your mark in the flourishing suburb of Frankston. Whether your dream is to create a stunning modern home or embark on a renovation project, this property presents a flexible palette to bring your ideas to life.

Set on a spacious 580sqm (approx.) lot, this charming 3-bedroom residence offers an incredible canvas for transformation or redevelopment. Ideal for tradespeople, developers, or savvy investors, this property boasts generous space and natural light with untapped potential in a rapidly expanding community.

The current home features a cozy living/dining area, but desperately in need of a new kitchen, bathroom, and laundry, all waiting for your creative touch. Additional highlights include a practical garden shed and plenty of off-street parking for convenience.

Nestled in a family-friendly neighbourhood, you will find yourself within close proximity to local primary schools, childcare, McClelland College, and Ballam Park Reserve. Enjoy a leisurely stroll to nearby shops, and with easy access to the Frankston freeway, Peninsula Link, Frankston CBD, Karingal hub shopping and stunning beaches, everything you need is at your convenience.

Don't miss this entry price investment, a rare opportunity to invest in this sought after location, brimming with potential!