Quintessential Hurstbridge living.

Nestled on a nature-inspired 1,300sqm (approx.) block in a whisper-quiet setting is where you'll discover this peaceful, private and practical home for the modern family.

Quintessentially Hurstbridge with its beautiful mix of recycled timbers, towering cathedral ceiling, rich timber kitchen and magnificent leafy vistas, the bright two-storey design is hallmarked by its connection with nature while delighting with its spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms, multiple living areas, fantastic outdoor entertaining options and scope for updates.

Gather the kids around the wood heater in the relaxed living area and enjoy the warmth it generates, while the adjacent study area with a soothing elevated outlook inspires creativity.

Cook with a view in the family-sized kitchen; for a closer look, step out onto the large balcony and admire the breathtaking treetop views with a glass of red in hand.

A large rumpus downstairs with an adjacent sitting area and bedroom/study with ensuite is ideal as a parents' or teenager's retreat; a further three robed bedrooms and bright bathroom are privately zoned upstairs.

Featuring ducted heating, split-system cooling, plenty of off-street parking and a usable flat backyard, enjoy a tranquil family lifestyle moments from the heart of Hurstbridge.
