Escape to the charming country township of Monteith and discover a five-acre retreat where a lifestyle brimming with potential awaits. At the heart of this serene property stands a charming 1920s stone cottage, ready to be transformed into your dream home. Step inside and be greeted by a spacious entrance hallway with timber floorboards that flow throughout the home, a testament to its original character. Four bedrooms, each equipped with ceiling fans, provide comfortable accommodations, while the master bedroom boasts an alcove, perfect for a cosy fireplace. The open-plan living room and kitchen area beckon with endless possibilities for reimagining and customisation. Embrace the chance to design a space that perfectly reflects your personal style and functional needs. Outside, the five-acre property offers boundless opportunities for outdoor living and recreation. Just a short two-minute drive from the picturesque Murray River embankment, boating, fishing, or simply enjoying the serene riverside scenery is within easy reach. The expansive grounds provide ample space for gardening, raising animals, or pursuing other outdoor hobbies. The possibilities are as vast as the landscape itself. Don't miss this rare chance to embrace a lifestyle of creativity and fulfillment in Monteith. This property is more than just a house; it's an invitation to revitalise a piece of history and craft a home that is uniquely yours.
