Near-new with a focus on high-quality detail and superior family functionality, this substantial family residence home presents a form that stands above all else, matching its impeccable finish with an exclusive neighbourhood setting. An exceptionally finished interior moves beyond a fitted theatre room into a grand family, dining and kitchen hub, where designer light fittings and premium drapes add a stylish touch to a space that underscores the home's commitment to quality. Sliding doors open life up to a covered alfresco terrace and sizeable yard, perfectly poised next to a stone kitchen with premier appliances and a butler's pantry for the perfect mix of form and function. A ground master bedroom delivers a space most 5-star hotels couldn't match, with retreat-like space complemented by a twin-vanity ensuite and a significant Hollywood-style dressing room. A guest bedroom sits directly above with a walk-in robe and ensuite, with three remaining bedrooms around a third lounge. Excellence persists with evaporative cooling, ducted heating, a study nook, and a double garage. A neighbourhood of premier homes relishes Wollert living in the way it was designed to be lived, just moments from Edgars Creek Reserve, Harvest Home Primary, Edgars Creek Secondary, Aurora Village shopping, public transport, abundant pre-schools and playgrounds, and easy access to the Hume Freeway.
