Character & Charm

Discover the perfect blend of charm and opportunity with this delightful character home in Invermay. Just a short stroll from Launceston CBD and Riverbend Park, this inviting home features a welcoming front veranda that invites a relaxed lifestyle.

Set at the front of the block, the property provides ample side access, lock up garage and the potential for future development or extension (STCA) at the rear. Additionally, there is room for three open car parking spaces, providing off street parking for family and guests.

Inside, you'll find an open-plan lounge and dining area that connects to an updated kitchen. In the heart of the kitchen is generous storage, a dishwasher, and overlooking the spacious backyard is a breakfast bar.

The home boasts plenty of character with its hardwood timber floorboards and high ceilings. The modern bathroom and laundry have been thoughtfully renovated, featuring a combined bath and shower to maximize space.

Located just minutes from local parks, trails, and the new University of Tasmania campus, this property is perfectly situated to meet all of your needs.
