Welcome to this classic bungalow designed home with charming architectural details, blending timeless elegance with modern comforts. You will enjoy the light filled rooms creating a warm and inviting atmosphere while taking in the beautiful view across Boston Bay. A fully renovated kitchen complements the home in crisp white tones, featuring dishwasher, modern appliances and plentiful storage space. In the bathroom you will find ample bench and storage space along with shower over the bath, plus the added bonus of a second shower off the laundry. Your year round comfort is ensured with the newly installed split system air conditioner. The versatile layout could be utilised as a 4 bedroom and would be perfect for families or those needing a home office or guest room. Enjoy stunning vistas of the bay from the comfort of your own home or while you are relaxing on the veranda facing the bay, ideal for outdoor entertaining or simply taking in the view. A sizable shed provides excellent storage or workspace options and the low maintenance garden is enough to satisfy the green thumb but will not occupy every weekend, leaving you free to enjoy the fantastic location.
