**Situated in a serene court location, this exquisite Art Deco town residence offers a perfect blend of historic charm and modern convenience. This beautifully maintained home is ideally located close to Studley Park, prestigious private schools, zoned for Kew High, and just minutes away from Kew Junction shopping and transport. The residence welcomes you with an elegant entrance hall leading to a spacious living room featuring a decorative open fireplace and a fitted study. The formal dining room provides an excellent space for entertaining, while the modern kitchen seamlessly connects to an expansive fully decked outdoor area. This outdoor space includes a separate freestanding rumpus room that can serve as a teenager's retreat, home office, or additional living area. A fully tiled bathroom and laundry complete the ground floor amenities. Upstairs, you will find a generously sized main bedroom with an open decorative fireplace and built-in robes, accompanied by two additional bedrooms. The family bathroom, featuring a separate toilet, ensures ample convenience for the household. The property boasts stunning dark-stained timber flooring and high ceilings with decorative cornices throughout, enhancing its Art Deco appeal. Additional features include water tanks, a garden shed, and a carport, making this residence as practical as it is charming. This beautiful home offers the perfect combination of location, style, and functionality, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a sophisticated and comfortable lifestyle.
