Tradition with a touch of modern - This home oozes the character, style and charm of its traditional origins complemented by the stunning modern rear extension. Disposed as four good sized bedrooms all with ornate open fire places that give each room a special ambience, 12ft high ceilings and polished Baltic pine floorboards adding character to this beautiful home. Both bathrooms are large in size, fully tiled, both with shower and toilet and one offering a bath. The home office/study area has ample bench space and privacy. The rear of the home offers you all the entertaining area you will need to wow your guests. The kitchen overlooks the casual dining / family area and will be appreciated by all cooks with its double oven, dishwasher, double door fridge, in built coffee machine & microwave, gas cook top and ample bench space. Full glass sliding doors allow the outside in and open the family area out to an large deck with automatic roller blinds for all year round entertaining. The sparkling inground pool surrounded by the easy care grounds will be enjoyed night and day by the lucky occupier. Perfectly located between the cosmopolitan vibes of Unley and King William Roads and a blink of an eye from the CBD the home has much to offer the discerning tenant.
