Nestled in a superb location for convenience and set on a large 480.6sqm block of land, this charming double fronted family residence offers comfortable living with scope to further improve when the time is right. It's positioned close to the Hurlstone Park, Ashfield and Ashbury border, giving you plenty of great lifestyle options. Set in a quiet street with district views to the south, it's an easy 800 metre walk to trains and local shopping village. City bound buses are footsteps away, great school options, parklands and the Dulwich Hill light rail is also within reach. Retaining some original featuring such as high patterned ceilings in the living room and leadlight windows in the front rooms, the floorplan includes 3 large bedrooms with an additional study. Separate dining area and vintage kitchen overlooks the deep, sundrenched garden which is great for kids and pets. Other highlights include an updated main bathroom and second shower and toilet in the external laundry. Complete with a side driveway to a carport and lock up garage.
