Welcome to 40 Barkers Crescent, Mickleham, where contemporary elegance meets practical family living. This meticulously designed home offers a blend of luxury and functionality across its spacious layout. Upon entry, you are greeted by a sophisticated formal lounge, perfect for welcoming guests or relaxing after a long day. Adjacent is a well-appointed study nook, ideal for those who work from home or need a quiet space to focus. The heart of the home is the expansive open plan living area and kitchen, featuring high-end upgrades including a waterfall stone benchtop. This area effortlessly combines style with practicality, creating a central hub for everyday living and entertaining. Upstairs, discover a generous rumpus room, providing additional space for recreation or relaxation. The master bedroom is a sanctuary in itself, boasting an ensuite and his and her walk-in robes, offering both luxury and convenience. Two additional bedrooms are serviced by a main bathroom and a separate toilet, ensuring comfort for all family members and guests. Downstairs, a powder room adds convenience, while a separate laundry enhances practicality. Outside, the property extends its appeal with a spacious backyard, perfect for outdoor activities and enjoying sunny days. This home at 40 Barkers Crescent epitomizes modern family living, with its thoughtful design, premium finishes, and functional spaces. Don't miss the opportunity to make this your new home.
