New To Market

As the heading suggests, options abound within the gates of this stunning four-and-a-half-thousand square-meter lifestyle Haven. The property is perfectly laid out allowing easy access for all manner of vehicles including hard standing for trucks, boats, caravans or the added option of home-based business supported by the four-bay garage with office, come teenagers retreat or secondary small dual living opportunity. Fresh as a daisy and neat as a pin the home exudes all of those creature comforts you would expect from a quaint country home. From the recent tasteful renovations and open plan living through to the modern appliances all those lifestyle luxuries you will find on hand right here at your very fingertips. As with all acreage properties it is about the piece and privacy rolling out onto the generous all-season undercover entertaining areas you are framed by the beautiful green leafy outlook and stunning in-ground pool to soak away those hot sunny coast summer days with a glass of bubbles in hand. The land lends itself to a multitude of applications from small cropping, self-sustainability, market garden or maybe even a pony or two, the options and opportunities are endless. The location will need no endorsement with a serene view from every room and merely minutes back to Woombye Central for that eclectic warm country welcome. With major shopping in Nambour Central and a multitude of private and public schools close by, that rare mix of convenience and serenity is found right here. The team at Grace Estate Agency would love to welcome you home to this amazing lifestyle opportunity. Come and inspect today before this little piece of paradise is gone forever.
