Possibly the most charming cottage in Wynnum, 41 Henry Street has remained true to its traditional design with soaring ceilings, VJ paneled walls, timber architraves and feature leadlight windows. The home sits on a 399 sqm corner block and has a wonderful calming feeling while the home itself is full of warmth and light. The Master bedroom is a wonderful size with a beautiful casement window, wall and ceiling VJ panels and built-in his and hers robes. At the heart of the home is the central lounge room with extra high ceilings and the most amazing feature light you will ever see. The kitchen has classic black and white check tiles, laminated benchtops and a new standalone oven with a four-burner cooktop. From here two windows provide a lovely view over the garden. The bathroom has been modernized with a shower over bath, stainless steel high flow shower head, wall mounted toiletry cupboard, single vanity and the toilet is separate. FEATURES: Unique Moreton Island lighthouse keeper's cottage light. Air conditioning and fans throughout. Modern bathroom. Polished hard wood timber floors. Fully fenced yard. Outside, the garden shed is a practical addition to the well-kept yard, offering ample room for play and the joy of pet ownership. Side access provides a secure off-street parking space for a caravan or boat. With its prime location in a coveted family-friendly area, this property is mere moments from Wynnum Central shopping precinct, transport, sporting venues, cafes, restaurants, doctors and dentists. It's also an easy walk to the Wynnum Esplanade and all the magic of Moreton Bay. This is a home of real beauty so call Danny today for more information.
