If position and price are important then this home could be the pick of the crop! Well located only minutes to local school, shops and transport. A great suburb offering open space, great parks for recreation, a large local shopping center, primary and high schools, daycare and a regular bus service.

This family home is well presented, positioned on a popular street within walking distance to all local amenities. Featuring three generous bedrooms, separate lounge room, modern kitchen with meals area, split system air conditioning and cottage style polished flooring throughout.

Positioned on a large 560.9m² lot with a family friendly level backyard for the kids or family pets. A double detached garage with double driveway access for car enthusiast, hobbyist or a buyer just looking for extra room for work vehicles.

Currently leased for $420 per week with current lease due to expire 10/09/2022 - can be sold with or without vacant possession making this home the ideal choice for the investor OR owner occupier.
