Placed mere metres from iconic King Street, this tightly held home is full of promise following decades of ownership. It is set over a 132.8sqm block with pedestrian access from the rear lane, presenting the potential to add off street parking, subject to Council approval. In need of cosmetic attention, interiors are designed with high ceilings and timber floors on both levels, laying out a traditional family residence with three bedrooms set upstairs and one downstairs. The home also features ample living space, a gas-appointed kitchen and generous outdoor area you can landscape with green space and for entertaining. It is placed for the highest degrees of convenience with Newtown Station, IGA and Camperdown Rest Memorial Park within a 300 metre radius.
