

43 Blandford Street, Collaroy Plateau, NSW 2097

Sold House

Monday, 22 April 2024

43 Blandford Street, Collaroy Plateau, NSW 2097

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Nicholas Hayes
0299189933

Alexander Schreiber
0299189933

Contact agent

Set at the tip of the most desirable cul-de-sac on the Plateau, this captivating home was reimagined from the ground up in 2020. An inspired renovation with a brand-new second level has created a fluid, open layout with dual living zones, light-drenched interiors, superb entertaining space and an azure-blue mineral pool. Not to be missed is a smartly-designed island kitchen with butler's pantry, three deluxe bathrooms and major electricity savings with 6.6kw of solar power. It's a magical location for any family; the quiet, cul-de-sac setting borders Plateau Park and is within a 10 minute stroll of the primary school, local shops, while just a minute's drive to the beach and lake. - Exquisite renovation in 2020; designed with a focus on lifestyle- Free-flowing interiors on main floor offer two distinct living zones- Sliding stacker doors to sheltered deck and a sparkling, sunlit pool- Command central is the gorgeous island kitchen; sleek and contemporary, it includes an induction cooktop and butler's pantry- Master boasts walk-in robe and ensuite; bedrooms feature built-in wardrobes - Three deluxe bathrooms; gleaming timber floorboards- Air con, lower floor windows double glazed, tandem carport, 6.6kw solar power- Prized cul-de-sac setting; short walk to park, schools and shopsDisclaimer: Whilst all care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the preparation of the particulars herein, no warranty can be given, and interested parties must rely on their own enquiries.