Comfortable family living close to parks, schools and shops.

With picturesque parks, lakeside walking paths and busy local shops at your fingertips, this could be the comfortable and convenient family home you're searching for. The spacious layout and contemporary design add instant appeal to this move-in-ready property while savvy house hunters will love the prime location so close to the region's popular beaches, schools and amenities.

The floorplan is set around a central kitchen, dining and living area where loved ones can gather at the end of the day. Here, tile floors, neutral colour tones and ample natural light create a bright and welcoming space with direct access to the covered entertaining area and private patio.

There's a dedicated media room for family movie night and an office/4th bedroom along with another three large bedrooms and two bathrooms. Your main bedroom is complete with a walk-through robe that leads to an ensuite plus there's a well-equipped main bathroom with a walk-in shower and a separate water closet.

You can leave the cars at home in the double garage and walk to nearby playgrounds and bus stops and you're also within easy reach of Brightwater State School, the Brightwater Hotel, ALDI and so much more.
