Inside, the home is designed for everyday living. The ducted air conditioning, with its zonal controls, ensures that each room can be adjusted to everyone's comfort. For added peace of mind,

The kitchen is a functional space, with an island bench that's great for both meal prep and casual family chats whilst the walk-in pantry offers plenty of storage, and the 900mm Westinghouse dual fuel upright cooker is handy for daily meals and special occasions.

The master bedroom has its own walk-in robe and ensuite with a double vanity. It's a quiet spot away from the main living areas. The main bathroom is roomy, catering to the needs of a family.

The living area is open and welcoming, a place where family members can come together. Adjacent to it is a formal dining area, suitable for meals of all sizes. The outdoor area, slightly larger than what's typically found, is a nice spot for relaxation and occasional gatherings.
