In the heart of the home you will find yourself in the open plan living and dining areas adjacent to the kitchen with the gas cooktop, oven, double sink and pantry for all your storage needs. The rear wing of the house will accommodate a growing family with 3 other good-sized bedrooms including built in robes to bedrooms 2 and 4. Year round comfort is provided for with ducted reverse cycle air con and a bonus is the large solar power system and 3 phase power for reduced power bills. There are also CCTV hi-look cameras. The BIG surprise is when you step outside, this will most definitely pull the heart strings with a massive undercover entertaining area, outdoor lounge area, indoor/outdoor rumpus room with built in bar and the star of the show a beautiful saltwater in-ground pool. Just when you think this home couldn't get any better there's even more room at the rear of the property with a granny flat positioned away from the main house. This would be ideal for the teens or young adults to make their own for a bit of separate living complete with kitchenette, bathroom and laundry. If you have a few toys in the way of cars, boat etc. then there is parking space between the double carport and an oversized extra carport capable of securely housing multiple large vehicles. These hobbies tend to take up more than just car spaces and this property has plenty of storage options for all your camping or fishing gear with a shed to the rear and side storage next to the large carport also.
