Queenslander

Outdoor images to come:

Privately set back from the road front on a 1-acre established allotment featuring a grand old Queenslander and the potential to subdivide.

This Queenslander displays original features, including a front veranda, tongue-and-groove walls, 12-foot ceilings, and French doors. The timber flooring has been covered up with updated floor coverings and the internal walls have been painted throughout. It has also been renovated for practical everyday living but still room to add your own personality.

Boasting two king-size guest bedrooms, each with built-in storage, updated paint, fans, and quality wool carpet. Privately located at the back of the house, the master bedroom with ensuite and storage nook.

Designed with black bench tops, stainless appliances with ceramic cooktop, large pantry and appliance storage, timber look cabinetry, and eat-in breakfast bar/ dining.

The home also comprises of two formal living rooms, the first flowing through to the sleep-out and office room. The second living area is also being utilised a formal dining.

The main bathroom is basic but functional with a shower over the bath, vanity, storage cupboard and toilet with vanity at the back of the house.

Underneath the home is full cement with lock-up storage room and laundry. There is also room for parking a small vehicle or entertainment space.
