This brand-new home in North Narooma really does have it all. A recently completed four-bedroom home that is so packed full of features they are too numerous to mention. The open plan kitchen and living areas are designed to take in the breathtaking views of Narooma and the Wagonga Inlet. The top level has three bedrooms, the master with BIR and ensuite, and a covered front deck that is designed as an extra living area to maximise the view. The rear deck adds privacy and has an enclosed sunken spa for relaxing in at the end of a long day. Downstairs you will find a separate self-contained space that could be used as a second living area, a games room, or a granny flat. This property comes with access into the backyard for easy maintenance. Additional to all of this you will find a double carport, beautiful landscaping, an extensive solar system, Air con and most importantly - peace and quiet. Situated only a few minutes from town this home really does have it all. Take the first steps in securing your dream south coast home and call Steve from LJHooker today.
