Enjoying loads of loveable warmth, this character filled 3 bedroom + study, 2-bathroom charmer, sits proudly around a lush garden setting creating a hidden sanctuary when your home sweet home, but so close to your life's needs, when it comes to convenience, community, fitness and fun times, being just around the corner from High Street. Lovingly maintained by the current owner for 3 decades, home improvements were always made to respect the hallmarks of this period home, so its immaculate presentation, lets you move straight in & ponder the possibility of creating your own style with its easy to like layout, block size and long side drive which is increasingly hard to find in this inner-city hot spot. Other positive attributes & comforts include: Ample off-street parking, brick garage, sweet outdoor studio or home office, chill out sunroom, full height built in robes, gas log fire place, original wood fire stoves, split system cooling/heating, water tank, solar panels and so many original features that will capture your heart. Love At First Sight...
