

48 Grandview Grove, Seaforth, NSW, 2092

STONE

House For Sale

Thursday, 24 October 2024

48 Grandview Grove, Seaforth, NSW, 2092

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Landmark residence of unsurpassed luxury, style and sophistication

Unequivocally one of the finest examples of Hamptons-inspired classic architecture and timeless opulence in all of Sydney, this residential masterpiece is destined to become a true landmark for the ages. Rising majestically on 1226sqm with 708sqm internal floor space and a highly-prized northerly aspect, this one-of-a-kind home offers a rare opportunity to own a property of such grandeur and distinction.

Exuding timeless elegance, sophistication and style, the home's beautifully appointed interiors with soaring ceilings, captivating romantic façade - complete with deep wraparound verandah and decorative fretwork - and spectacular outdoor spaces with superbly landscaped gardens make this home a stunning showcase for both indoor and outdoor living. Crafted with excellence, privacy and luxury front of mind, this bespoke residence truly is the ultimate forever home.

- Inspired classic design by Roderick McDonald of Chateau Architects enhanced by state-of-the-art designer finishes
- Full brick construction, newly built and completed in 2011
- Classic premium detailing throughout, including solid timber doors, cornices, skirtings and architraves; American style timber staircase plus timber wall panelling
- Ducted air conditioning throughout; statement antique light fittings
- American Oak floorboards downstairs; soaring 3700mm high ceilings
- Formal living and dining with gas fireplace and marble surround, romantic bay window
- Stunning home office with custom oak cabinetry and shelving, gas fireplace with marble surround and picture-perfect bay window
- Multiple separate living zones remarkable in size and practicality, offering versatility for modern family living
- Deluxe Italian marble island kitchen with premium European appliances and butlers' pantry
- Palatial master suite with robe/dressing room, luxury ensuite and balcony with district outlook
- Guest suite/wing with own ensuite; ensuites and bathrooms with marble finishes
- Immaculately landscaped gardens, fully irrigated with level lawn and putting green
- North facing rear terrace with retractable blind, gas heated salt-water pool & spa, air-conditioned poolside cabana, patio with BBQ and pizza oven
- Fully-fitted wine cellar with racking for 420 bottles
- Gated entry, remote oversized double garage, ample storage throughout the house
- Prestigious Seaforth location minutes to schools, beaches and city, walk to Seaforth village cafes and restaurants
- The sheer grandeur and lifestyle this amazing family home offers makes it very special!