Dive into your dream: Ocean Shores oasis with professional-grade pool

Nestled in the heart of Ocean Shores, a sanctuary summons. Here lies a haven, and a fitness enthusiast's paradise. As you approach the eloquent cottage, set on a generous 1,122 sqm flat block, you'll feel the outside world melt away.

Make a splash in your private aquatic centre

The crown jewel of this property? A 17-metre, two-lane saltwater pool that would make Olympians green with envy. This isn't your average backyard pool - it's a training ground for serious swimmers and a luxurious oasis for those who appreciate quality. Designed with professional swimmers in mind, its generous length and impeccable design offer the perfect environment for rigorous training sessions or leisurely laps.

After your swim, unwind in the spa, nestled in its own gazebo. This private wellness retreat provides the perfect balance to your aquatic workout, offering a space for relaxation and recovery.

A symphony of light and nature

Push open the door and let your senses come alive. Polished floorboards gleam underfoot, reflecting the abundant natural light that pours in through expansive windows. The open plan layout invites you to breathe, to stretch, to simply be. A strategically placed skylight bathes the space in an ethereal glow, as if the cottage itself is whispering, "Welcome home."

Picture this: A crisp winter's evening. The cosy woodheater crackles softly, casting a warm dance of light across the room. Or a balmy summer's day, ceiling fans spinning lazily, keeping the air fresh and inviting. Every season brings its own magic here.

The dining room offers a front-row seat to nature's ever-changing show. Slide open the glass doors and let the garden's lush beauty become part of your daily ritual.

This is no cookie-cutter dwelling. Timber frames and insets add character and warmth, telling a story of craftsmanship and care. The bathroom, with its large tiles and deep, inviting tub feels like a personal spa retreat.

Outdoor living at its finest

Step onto the verandahs and feel your shoulders drop. Here, relaxation isn't a luxury; it's a way of life. The expansive outdoor area seamlessly blends with the indoor space, creating a true indoor-outdoor living experience. Wander the picturesque manicured garden and rest under the established trees. Wake up to birdsong, spend mornings perfecting your stroke in your professional-grade pool, and evenings stargazing from the verandah.

More than just a home

Zoned R3, this property offers the possibility of combining your dream lifestyle with work. Imagine running your business from this serene setting, where creativity and productivity flow as naturally as the breeze through the trees.
