Spacious and contemporary, this stunning single-storey haven is sitting on 355m² of prime land and will captivate you with its impeccable design and thoughtful features. Boasting its own street frontage, this home is privately tucked away behind a high fence and offers an excellent lifestyle for small families, professionals and those looking for a single storey property in a great location. Enter the home into the expansive living and dining area, where indoor and outdoor living blend seamlessly via glass sliders and full height windows. The extensive merbau entertaining deck is perfect for relaxing or hosting gatherings, while the lush backyard and wraparound garden – complete with a four-person sauna and outdoor shower – create an idyllic beachside lifestyle to enjoy for years to come. The heart of the home, the impressive kitchen, is truly a chef's dream. Boasting waterfall-edge porcelain marble benchtops, a servery that merges indoor and outdoor spaces, breakfast bar, and premium stainless-steel appliances, this kitchen is as functional as it is beautiful. This wonderful home features two generously sized bedrooms, each with built-in wardrobes, sharing a central bathroom with a bath and separate W/C. Additional conveniences include a full laundry, oversized single lock-up garage and off-street parking for an additional two vehicles. The property is complete with ducted heating, split-system heating/cooling and ceiling fans throughout. Ideally situated in the heart of Chelsea just steps away from sporting grounds, excellent schools, popular cafes and public transport. Located less than 1km from the beautiful Chelsea beach, you will love the relaxed beachside lifestyle on offer. Seize this rare opportunity by contacting Kimberley Ferguson on 0413 667 228 to register your interest.
