Looking for the quiet life? Ready to breathe in fresh Tassie air? Then 50 Main Street, Pioneer might be your little piece of paradise. The home, built in 1930, sits on a generous 1656 square meter parcel of land and retains many of its original 1930s features. With three bedrooms, a renovated kitchen, and an open-plan living space, this cozy home is perfect for families. The woodfire adds a touch of warmth and comfort. Outside, you'll find a garage, vegetable gardens, sheds, and even a chicken coop, providing ample space for outdoor activities and hobbies. The iconic 'The Little Blue Lake' is just a short drive away. Take the family for a picnic besides a stunning Aqua water. Then you find the Pioneer Lake just a few short minutes away offering a perfect spot for swimming, waterskiing, or other boating activities. If that's not enough the world renowned 'Blue Derby' mountain bike trails are only 16 km away, making this an ideal location for the active person. And with the famous Bay of Fires nearby, day trips are a dream come true. If this sounds like the life for you then give me a call, I'd love to show you through.
