Discover a new benchmark in luxurious rural living

One of the most breathtaking examples of rural perfection in the region, this exquisitely restored Queenslander-style residence sits high on over 35 acres of lush rolling hills. Originally constructed in the late 1800's, the four bedroom haven has been masterfully renovated to reveal an incomparable level of luxury and attention to detail. An array of living zones, a built-in BBQ dining area and a crystal clear swimming pool are just a few outstanding features of this spectacular property. Multiple machinery sheds, horse stables, and meticulously landscaped gardens add to the unique allure of this Corndale sanctuary.

- Experience 35 acres (14.17Ha) of magnificent Corndale countryside
- The long sealed driveway leads you to the incredible elevated home site
- Surveying the majestic views, the historic residence exudes period grandeur
- The timeless facade features a classic wrap-around verandah with lounge area
- Two luxuriously appointed bedroom suites include the indulgent spa-like master
- Two further secondary bedrooms close to the main bathroom with Japanese plunge bath
- Multiple living areas throughout feature teak timber flooring, ornate detailing, 12ft ceilings
- Chef-quality kitchen with dual ovens, extensive cabinetry, Italian marble benchtops
- Dine under the stars in the alfresco entertaining area with built-in BBQ
- Dual fireplace, dedicated study, a custom drinks bar, and easy verandah access
- Stroll down to the in-ground swimming pool and admire the idyllic views
- 3 large machinery sheds, triple carport, plus 6kW solar system
- Spring-fed dam, 12m x 5m horse stable, an array of fruit trees, plus veggie gardens
- Just 12 mins to Clunes village, 20 mins to Lismore, or 35 mins to Byron Bay
