Perfecting the concept of charm, light and lifestyle flexibility, this fully renovated c1850 home is graced with fresh interiors, high-quality finishes and a leafy side courtyard for entertaining. Behind its vintage brick facade is a light and airy residence that's been tastefully upgraded and designed to provide a great space for low maintenance in/outdoor living. And best of all, it comes supremely well-positioned within 350m to Petersham station and the White Cockatoo gastro pub, and just a few footsteps from top-rated neighbourhood cafés, a choice of parks and lots more. Bright breezy layout featuring open plan living and dining areas. Cool exposed brick walls, high ceilings and many original details. Immaculately presented with fresh paint and newly polished floors. A leafy courtyard includes a paved outdoor space with vertical garden. Modern entertainer's kitchen with a servery opening to the courtyard. Three generous bedrooms, the spacious master has an ensuite and walk-in robe. The upper-level bedroom has a study nook and ample storage space. Air-conditioning, LED downlights, two modern bathrooms. Coveted undercover off-street parking. Walk to Brighton Street Reserve and the Fanny Durack Aquatic Centre.
