Come see for yourself, you will be amazed by the sheer size and layout of this property. On entering you are greeted by the heart of the home - living, dining, and a newly renovated kitchen all surrounded by the backdrop of lush greenery. Exploring on the same level, you will find two bedrooms both with built in robes. The calm and soulfulness of this home makes you feel like you are a world away in your very own private tree top retreat. Heading upstairs you will find the generously sized master bedroom with double robes and beautiful views of the garden. Continuing on this level, there are two more large bedrooms and the main bathroom. Heading back downstairs to the lowest level of the home you will discover another full bathroom, laundry and the rumpus room/6th bedroom which could become a teenagers retreat or the perfect space to work from home or a kids playroom. From this level you can also access the home through the double garage or head out to the back yard and relax on your very private deck.
