Surround yourself with sleek, contemporary elegance that is the pinnacle of luxurious and refreshing living. The internal courtyard creates a central escape bringing the balmy days and nights into the central living and kitchen areas. This spacious home in the heart of Subiaco has been designed to enjoy the fruits of life, with only a minimum amount of upkeep required. Live, love and relax in the quality setting of this stunning home. On entrance to the foyer, you will immediately feel the quality and warmth of this home. With fantastic separation between living and sleeping quarters, the home allows itself to be interpreted by each occupant in their own unique way. The resort style rear courtyard complete with ambient fountain can be opened up directly from the kitchen allowing seamless entertaining. With each bedroom room well appointed with robes there is plenty of room to move. This is a property that rarely sees the rental market and is very tightly held throughout inner Subiaco. For your opportunity to inspect, please register for the Open Home on 26th June at 4 pm. One small pet will be considered upon application.
