Exquisite Half-Acre Sunlit Retreat in Burradoo

Nestled on a serene 2,000 sqm parcel in the prestigious enclave of Burradoo, this splendid residence offers the epitome of luxurious downsizing. The property is perfectly positioned, offering privacy while being just moments from the vibrant Bowral township.

As you arrive via the elegant paved driveway, you are greeted by a sophisticated, bagged brick and tile home set on a meticulously landscaped, fully fenced battleaxe block. The property showcases an expansive 2,170 sqm of beautifully maintained grounds, blending harmoniously with the lush, leafy surroundings of Burradoo.

This impeccably designed residence prioritizes both comfort and style. The sun-drenched north-facing living areas are bathed in natural light, creating an inviting and uplifting atmosphere. The spacious interiors feature a clean, bright decor, with beige carpeting in the lounge complemented by timber Venetian blinds. The casual living areas boast chic European blinds and a tasteful tiled floor.

The heart of the home is the Tasmanian Oak timber kitchen, where dramatic darker bench tops add a touch of elegance. This culinary space seamlessly connects to the family and breakfast rooms, both of which are bathed in glorious sunshine.

The master suite is a luxurious retreat, featuring his-and-hers dressing rooms and a sophisticated bathroom with twin basins, designed to provide a sanctuary of relaxation.

Additional features include:

- Built-in wardrobes
- Solar panels for energy efficiency
- Twin solar & gas hot water system
- Security surveillance system
- Ducted air conditioning
- Double garage
- 3000 litre water tank
- Plus, an array of bespoke finishes that enhance the home's appeal.

This Southern Highlands residence effortlessly combines luxury, space, and convenience, providing an unparalleled lifestyle opportunity.
