Surrounded by native trees this private oasis is the ideal permanent home or weekender, offering four large bedrooms and three living areas, with ample room for the whole family. Multiple zones to relax, work or host guests await, with the gracious layout flowing directly into the open plan living and dining room amidst the warmth of a large gas log fireplace. Sit back, relax and enjoy the sun on the amazing entertaining deck with stunning pool, spa and daybed, as well as an incredibly spacious undercover alfresco lounge with a lovely wood heater for the cooler days. Offering generous car accommodation with ample space for four cars in the garage, as well as generous off-street parking and room for a boat/caravan. Envious storage combined with a workshop is amongst a host of features. A short stroll to Mt Martha Primary school, Mount Martha Village's vibrant cafe culture and stunning South Beach, providing lifestyle living and entertaining in a premium Peninsula setting. An address that delivers the very best of Mt Martha's lifestyle with restaurants, cafes and boutiques nearby as well as the Life Saving, Yacht Club and Tennis clubs. If you venture out further there are world class wineries and golf courses, spa retreats and so much more to discover. All of this within an hours' drive approx. to Melbourne via Peninsula Link, making it an ideal low maintenance lock up and leave home.
