This idyllic retreat might have jumped straight out of the pages of a design magazine – it's pure style and seamless functionality from end to end; gently curved ceilings are suspended over the beautifully curated interiors, while an array of luxe finishes contrast with the bold, organic forms of the home. It's a superb entertainer with expansive, full-length terraces on both levels, each privately framed by a lush green backdrop on an impressive, low maintenance parcel. With significant renovations made in the last year, this stunning weekender is just a short stroll to the sand and surf at Macmasters Beach from a blue-ribbon, coastal setting.

- Form meets function: designer interiors with an open plan layout
- Low-maintenance home with landscaped with native gardens
- Luminous floorplan; high, curved roofline and sliding stacker doors
- Indoor/outdoor living; interiors merge with expansive terraces
- New designer kitchen finished with a suite of premium appliances
- Master suite + 2nd bedroom with terrace access and built-in robes
- Sleek, contemporary bathrooms, combustion fireplace, R/C air con
- Easy access to beautiful Macmasters beach and the walks in Bouddi National Park
