Spacious, tranquil and centrally placed for vibrancy

Bright, airy and wonderfully inviting, this charming three bedroom plus external studio/office home showcases stylish updates throughout, tranquil outdoor space and a blue-ribbon address just walking distance to thriving High Street amenities. Beyond its classic blonde brick façade and established veggie patched garden lies high ceilings complemented by timber floors over a split-level design. The spacious lounge opens to a stylish kitchen/meals domain fully equipped in quality stainless-steel cooking appliances, double dishwasher drawer, stone countertops and breakfast bar. Meanwhile, the versatile sunroom flows to a peaceful north-facing backyard enveloped by leafy garden beds and two citrus trees. The relaxed decking makes it easy to entertain at home; and the convenient studio features an integrated workstation. Back inside, restful bedrooms comprise built-in-robos and flank the sparkling central bathroom. Further highlights include ducted heating, multiple split systems, alarm and full-size laundry containing second toilet. With lockup garage and undercover carport offering gated driveway parking. Enviably zoned to Northcote High and Brunswick East Primary. Approximately only 7km to our vibrant CBD; and in close proximity of the serene Merri Creek Trail and Mayer Park. Moments to trams/trains, renowned eateries/bars, boutique shops and Northcote Public Golf Course.
