PLENTY OF POTENTIAL ON BEATTY ROAD

This high-set, 3-bedroom, post-war property is brimming with potential, offering a unique opportunity for families or savvy investors. Conveniently located just 15 km from the Brisbane CBD, this home is ideal for anyone seeking a project property with an eye toward future growth.

The property offers a generous living area with a separate sunroom that could double as a home office or kids' playroom. The kitchen is located at the rear and has ample space for dining and easy access to the backyard. With plenty of storage under the house, including a secure single garage, this property offers flexibility for families or investors looking to add value with updates or renovations.

Acacia Ridge is a fast-developing suburb due to its proximity to the Brisbane CBD and excellent amenities. Families will appreciate the nearby schools, including Acacia Ridge State School and St Fatima's Primary School, as well as numerous daycare centres. Shopping options are abundant, with the Elizabeth Street Shopping Centre (featuring an IGA and specialty stores) and Acacia Market Place (home to Woolworths and Aldi) both just a short drive away.
