RENOVATED STYLE WITH UNBEATABLE VIEWS

Presiding over a lush, elevated block in a family-friendly community, this rejuvenated single-level has everything desired for relaxed, move-in comfort! Nestled on top of the world with glittering horizon views, there is plenty of space for growing families and an outdoor entertaining zone that has you feeling like you're on holidays year round!

Manicured landscaping and hedge-lined pathways offer the perfect welcome before new herringbone flooring announces your entry in style. Large living and dining are joined by a separate media room and plush lounge with fireplace, each combining to deliver expansive space to unwind and connect as desired. Central to the flowing layout, the kitchen has been brilliantly upgraded and offers excellent storage alongside a butler's pantry, quality appliances and crisp white stone.

Covered alfresco entertaining beckons you with spectacular horizon views providing a glittering backdrop to outdoor relaxation. The sparkling new swimming pool cements the resort vibes, overlooking magical sunsets and lush landscaped surrounds

All four bedrooms are well-sized and include plush new carpet and built-in storage. Waking up to wonderful views, the master includes a walk-in robe and striking ensuite with dual vanity and relaxing bath. The main bathroom has been intelligently laid out for family use with a separate wet room hosting a bath and shower as well as a lengthy vanity and third toilet. Additional features include a separate laundry, plantation shutters, ducted air-conditioning, solar electricity, and incredible vehicle accommodation with double garaging and additional four car carport.

Enticingly tranquil with a leafy bushland backdrop, you are central to extensive amenity with every day convenience bringing welcome ease. Assisi Catholic College and Coomera Anglican College are some of the superb schooling options close by whilst shopping, dining and transport are all at arm's reach!
