Family functionality in peaceful court.

Configured for family comfort with the perfect separation between the living and sleeping zones, this tightly held home sits in a quiet court and enjoys mountain glimpses on an impressive 741sqm approx. allotment.

Certain to excite families seeking the ideal home to place their modern stamp on, the home's well-designed layout entices you from the entry foyer through to a large lounge room with corner windows for natural light.

The separate dining room looks out towards the top of the Dandenong Ranges, while the kitchen boasts ample storage and aspects of the paved entertaining zone and north-facing backyard.

Flowing off the hallway, the four bedrooms include two with built-in-robos and are serviced by a family bathroom, separate toilet and full-sized laundry with doorway leading outside.

Neatly presented and appointed with ducted heating, split system air conditioning, garden shed plus a two-car garage that's preceded by a double carport.
