Spacious family haven.

Looking for your own tranquil oasis whilst still surrounded by everything you'll ever need? This home has it all.

The epitome of comfort and modern luxury, we welcome you to this large family home positioned on a spacious allotment of 514m² (approx.) and the interior certainly doesn't disappoint.

Upon entry to this abode is the spacious formal living area further highlighted by natural light bleeding through every corner. The whole family is gifted with an even greater open plan living, dining and kitchen area boasting quality cooking appliances and an array of storage. The open plan design allows you to see the main activity centres with stylish fittings and fixtures wisely sprawled throughout the home. The master retreat sits at the front extending to a large walk-in-robe and ensuite.

Cleverly zoned with the growing family in mind, the left wing offers three well-sized bedrooms, all with built-in-robos, serviced by a central bathroom, a separate toilet and an oversized laundry. Match this with solar panels, double lock-up garage with drive-thru access to the undercover area perfect to host all the major family events.

Location is flawless! Not only are you placed in one of Lara's most highly sought-after pockets, Buckingham Street is gifted with further conveniences. Nearby schools for all ages, childcare centre, walking distance to public transport and a horde of other amenities at the easily accessible Lara Village Shopping Centre. The commuter of the family will enjoy the ease of access to Melbourne via the Geelong Ring Road.

With rare quality opportunities presenting itself to the market, this is one we are truly excited to represent.
