Perfectly located in a sought-after area of Crib Point, this idyllic two-bedroom home gives you the comfort of independence with a blissful community feel. Full of character and endless possibilities, this sweet weatherboard home is full of charm. Retaining its original cottage feel, the home features two generously sized bedrooms with built-in robes, a renovated family bathroom and a spacious living area with adjoining kitchen/dining area. Set on a generous 970m² (approx.) corner allotment, there is easy access to the rear garden and double garage. Positioned within close proximity to the shops, schools, recreational facilities and only a short walk to Morradoo Train Station. This is an exciting opportunity for a first home, family starter, investment, or retiree's nest. Contact us today to arrange a private inspection!
