Quality Home, Quality Street Exceptionally positioned in a sort after quiet cul de sac this private home offers very special opportunity to the lucky new buyers. Immaculately presented this individually designed home is bound to impress with cathedral ceiling in the lounge room, warm timber features throughout, this home could be the perfect answer for those looking for a quality property in one of North Cowra's finest streets. The large windows give the home plenty of natural light and offer a delightful outlook over the established garden, and the outdoor deck from the home creates a smooth transition from the living areas to the private garden. The main bedroom has a walk in robe and ensuite and also has sliding glass doors that open to the back deck pergola area and garden. The 2 other bedrooms are a good size and have built in robes, formal lounge, formal dining area and living room, ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, and natural gas heating to keep the home at the perfect temperature all year round. Double car garage and country style gardens this home is ideal for a country buyer who is moving to town from the farm then this home is certainly worthy of inspection. Established gardens and access to the back yard from reserve. Call now for more information, Scott Penning - 6342 3344 James P Keady Pty Limited – A Family Company since 1912
