This delightful 1950s home blends classic charm with modern convenience, offering a comfortable and stylish living space. The property boasts three spacious bedrooms, two well-appointed bathrooms, and polished Tasmanian oak timber floors. Freshly painted both inside and out, and significantly improved since last sale, the home presents a bright and inviting atmosphere in a sunny location. Enjoy the easy commute to Hobart's CBD and the convenience of nearby Sandy Bay services and access to highly regarded schools in the local area. The property retains beautiful period features from the 1950s, adding a unique character and charm. The sunny entertainment deck is perfect for outdoor gatherings, and the thoughtfully designed, easy-care gardens provide a serene escape. Whether you are looking for a family home or a promising investment opportunity, this property has a history of delivering attractive returns. Don't miss the chance to make this charming home yours!
