For Sale

A tasteful renovation has revived the heart and soul of this great-looking mountain home allowing its original features to shine while creating a thoroughly contemporary home for the entertainer. Nestled into an easily maintained quarter-acre block, the striking residence makes an instant first impression with its beautiful 1950s facades and entertainment terrace, a flexible interior layout and amazing views over Samford Valley and Moreton Island. Set up high to benefit from fresh breezes and awe-inspiring panoramas, it is immaculately presented throughout and features an easy-to-maintain dual level floorplan perfectly designed for family living. There are polished timber floors and good natural light throughout, as well as oversized areas for living and dining, a quality modern kitchen and an easy flow out to a wraparound entertainment deck that soaks up the views. The home is complemented by a low maintenance terraced rainforest garden, outdoor fire-pit and veggie patches perfect for the entertainer or those in search of a quiet retreat. There's even chicken coop, carport and 2 x 25,000 litres of tank water. Escape the fast-paced city life to another world with fresh country air to breathe and the charming café culture of Samford village just 25 minutes away, and 45 minutes to Brisbane CBD. This is the perfect location to enjoy bushwalking through the surrounding rainforest, birdwatching or just admiring the view, all on your own private bush retreat.
